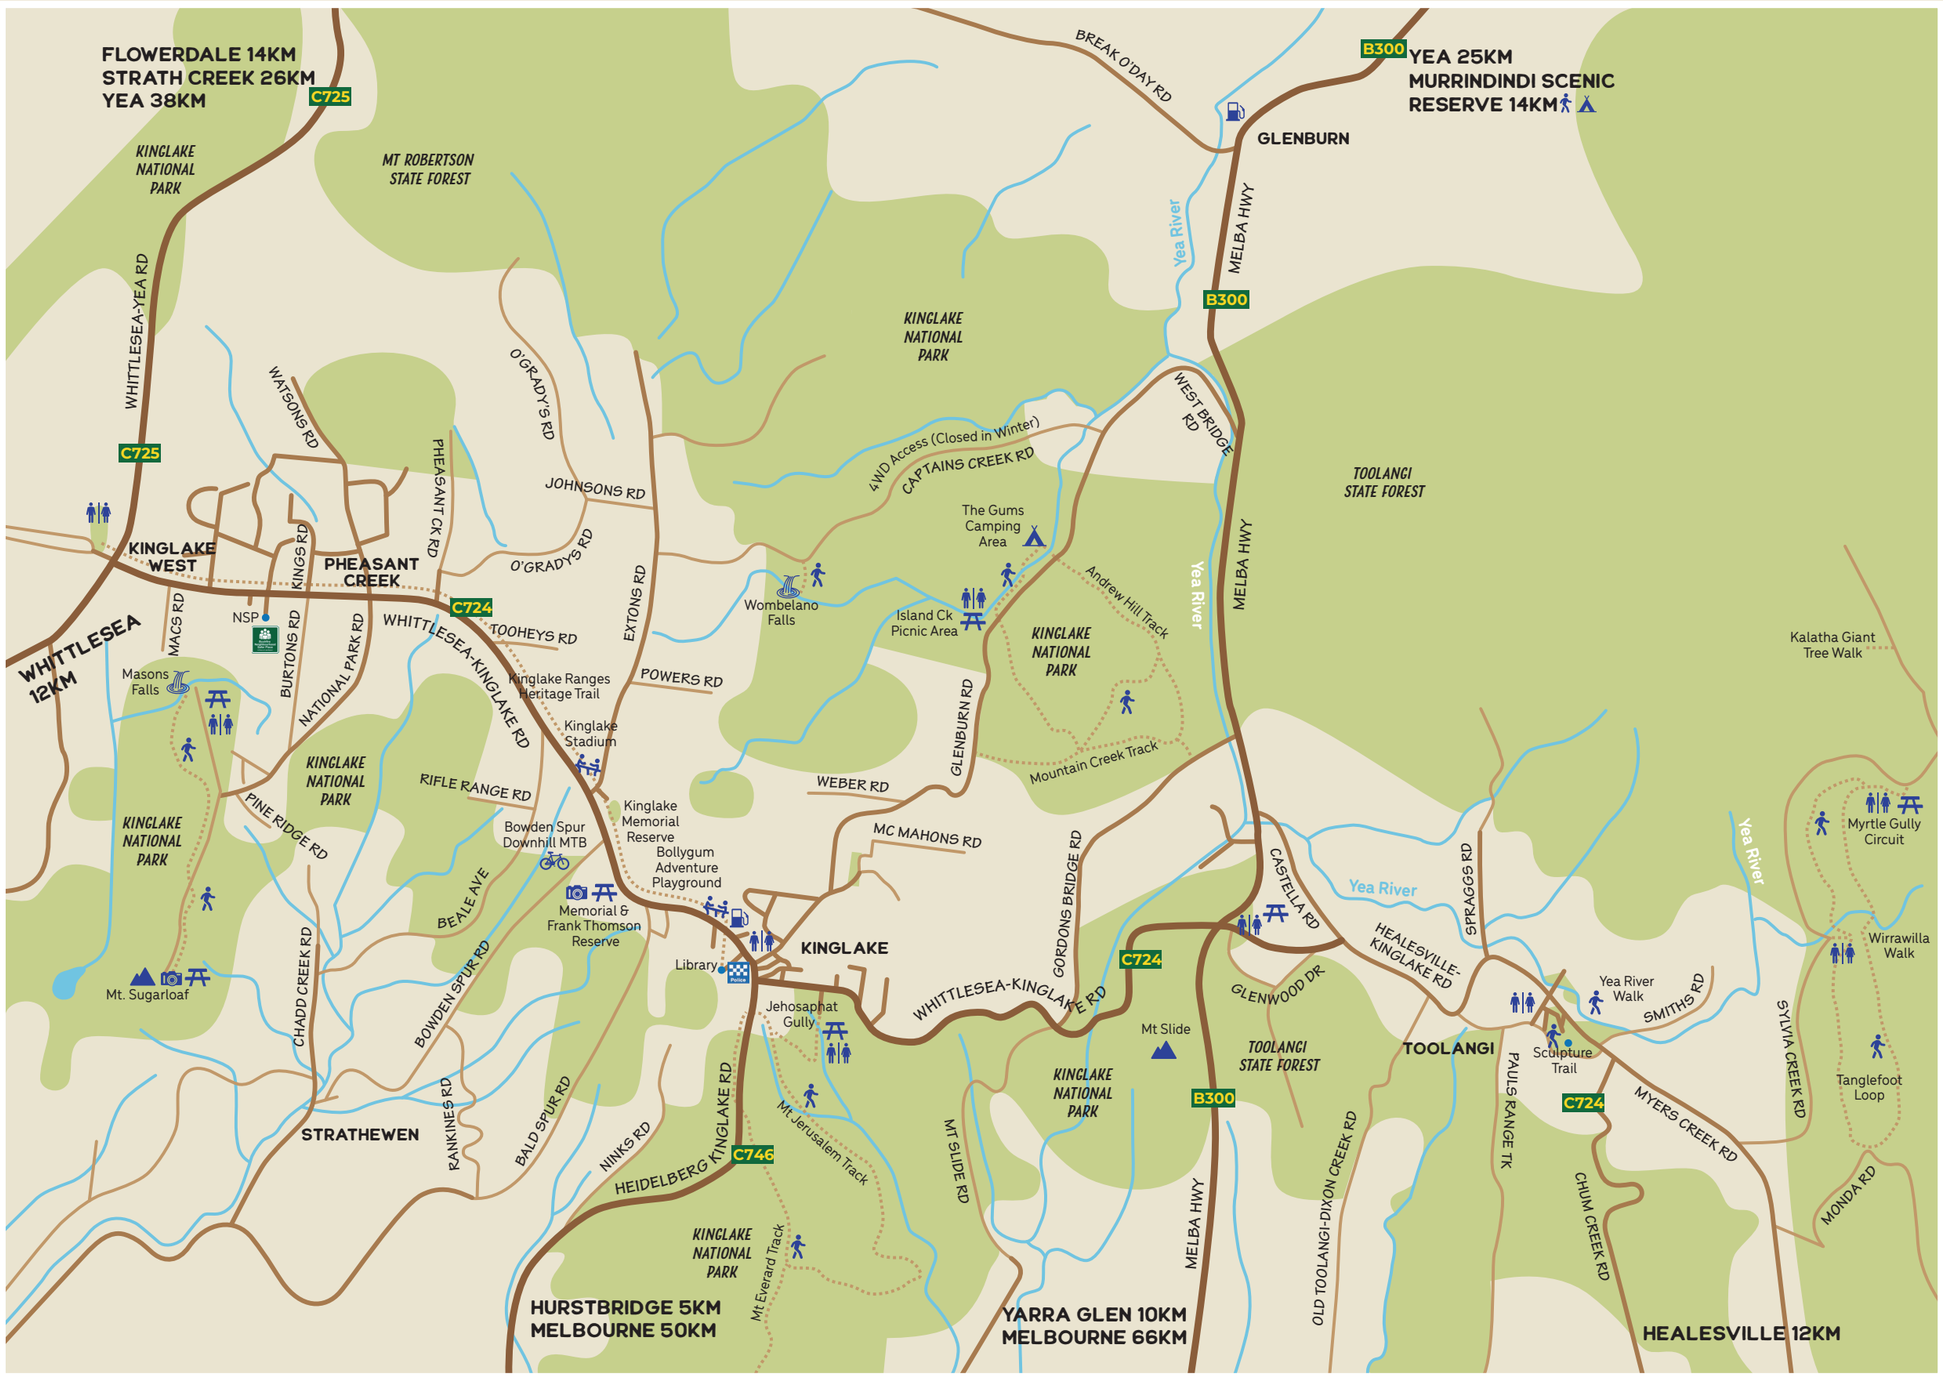
KINGLAKE RANGES

Discover the Kinglake Ranges. Delicious local produce, fine wines, stunning walks and waterfalls - and all only 50 minutes from Melbourne! The climate and topography of the Kinglake Ranges produces an amazing range of quality food, including fresh berries, vegetables and cool-climate wines.

MUST DO

* Take in the view of Melbourne from the Frank Thomson Reserve
* Discover the Kinglake Ranges Heritage Trail
* Wander along the amazing Wirrawilla Rainforest Walk
* Explore the Toolangi Sculpture Trail
* Pick your own berries during summer and autumn
* Indulge in a therapeutic massage or Reiki healing
* Enjoy bush walking and camping in the Kinglake National Park
* Discover the Masons and Wombelano Waterfalls
* Take the kids to Bollygum Adventure Playground
* Sample delicious local produce at the monthly markets



DID YOU KNOW?

There is no lake at Kinglake! The Kinglake township was named after British historian Alexander William Kinglake.

LEGEND

Waterfalls		Petrol		Lake or River
Mountains		Cycling		Places of Interest
Public Toilet		Major Road		Police Station
Picnic Area		Sealed Road		Neighbourhood Safer Place NSP
Walking		Unsealed Road
Camping		Walking Trail
		Parkland/Bush

discoverdindi.com.au
@discoverdindi

Murrindindi Shire Council

Original map supplied by Rooftop Maps