Meeting Roles

Overview:

The way in which Council and Committee Meetings are conducted makes a significant contribution to good governance. The Chairperson plays a crucial role in facilitating an orderly, respectful, transparent and constructive meeting by ensuring all Councillors and members of Delegated Committees and advisory committees have the opportunity to be heard, matters are adequately discussed, meeting procedures are followed appropriately, and statutory requirements are adhered to.

The Act provides for the Mayor to appoint a Councillor as the Chair of a Delegated Committee and any such appointment prevails over any appointment made by Council. While there are no limitations on exercising that power, the Mayor must always act in a way that is consistent with the adopted Councillor Code of Conduct and transparency commitments of the Council.

Additionally, each member of the meeting has an obligation to participate in good decision-making.

Specific duties and discretions of the Chairperson are outlined throughout these Governance Rules.

PART 10 - MOTIONS & DEBATE

Overview:

This Section describes the procedure for introducing a motion or amendment, the rules of debate, foreshadowing a motion or amendment and the duty of the Chairperson in relation to accepting motions and amendments. It also describes the process for a Councillor lodging a notice of motion for consideration and/or indicating they will raise a matter at the next Council Meeting (foreshadowing items).

A Councillor may move any motion related to an item included in the agenda. In the interest of transparency and informed decision making, motions or amendments should not introduce new matters to a debate that have not been the subject of the report or background of the motion being considered by Council. Motions are required to be submitted in writing so they can be displayed to the meeting.

As a resolution must be able to be acted upon, a motion must clearly state what is intended and what its effect will be if it becomes the decision. This provides clarity for the implementation of Council decisions.

This Section also describes the circumstances and procedures under which a Council decision can be rescinded or altered. It also prescribes a procedure under which a Council policy can be altered or varied.

10.1 Moving a motion

10.1.1 The procedure for moving any Motion is:

- (a) the mover must outline the Motion without speaking in support of it
- (b) the Motion must be seconded by a Councillor other than the mover
- (c) if a Motion is not seconded, the Motion lapses for want of a seconder
- (d) if there is a seconder, then the Chairperson must call on the mover to speak to the Motion
- (e) after the mover has spoken to the Motion, the seconder may also speak to the Motion

- (f) after the seconder has spoken to the Motion (or after the mover has spoken to the Motion if the seconder does not speak to the Motion), the Chairperson must call on any other Councillor who wishes to speak for or against the Motion and
- (g) if no Councillor wishes to speak against the Motion, then the Chairperson may put the Motion.

A resolution must be capable of standing alone, that is, a person reading the decision of Council in the minutes will be able to understand what Council is seeking to achieve without reference to other sources. This usually means it should include specifics about the action to be taken, the timing of the action to be taken, the details of any other organisation

10.2 Chairperson's duty

10.2.1 The Chairperson must not accept any Motion which:

- (a) is defamatory; or
- (b) is objectionable in language or nature; or
- (c) is vague or unclear in its intention; or
- (d) is outside the powers of Council; or
- (e) is not relevant to an item of business on the Agenda and has not been admitted as urgent business; or
- (f) purports to be an amendment but is not.

10.3 Right of reply

10.3.1 The mover of a Motion, which has not been amended, may, once debate has been exhausted, exercise a right of reply to matters raised during debate.

10.3.2 After the right of reply has been exercised, the Motion must immediately be put to the vote without any further discussion or debate.

10.4 Moving an amendment

10.4.1 A Motion, which has been moved and seconded, may be amended by leaving out, inserting or adding words, which must be relevant to the subject of the Motion.

- 10.4.2 An amendment may be proposed or seconded by any Councillor, except the mover and seconder of the original Motion. If a Councillor proposes an amendment and the original mover and seconder of the Motion both indicate their agreement with the amendment, the amended Motion becomes the substantive Motion without debate or vote.
- 10.4.3 If a Councillor proposes an amendment to which either the mover or seconder does not agree, the following will apply:
- (a) the amendment must be moved and seconded;
 - (b) a Councillor may speak on any amendment once, whether or not they have spoken to the Motion, but debate must be confined to the terms of the amendment;
 - (c) any number of amendments may be proposed to a Motion, but only one amendment may be accepted by the Chairperson at any one time. No second or subsequent amendment, whether to the Motion or an amendment of it, may be taken into consideration until the previous amendment has been dealt with and voted on;
 - (d) if the amendment is carried, the Motion as amended then becomes the Motion before the Meeting (known as the 'substantive Motion'); and
 - (e) the mover of an amendment does not have right of reply.

If a proposed amendment is ruled to be the negative of, or substantially contrary to, the motion, it should be treated as an alternative motion to be considered only in the event that the motion before the Chair is lost – see Foreshadowing Motions.

10.5 Foreshadowing motions

- 10.5.1 At any time during debate a Councillor may foreshadow a Motion so as to inform Council of the intention to move a Motion at a later stage in the Meeting, but this does not extend any special right to the foreshadowed Motion.
- 10.5.2 A Motion foreshadowed may be prefaced with a statement that, in the event of a particular Motion before the Meeting being resolved in a certain way, a Councillor intends to move an alternative or additional Motion.

- 10.5.3 A Motion foreshadowed has no procedural standing and is merely a means to assist the flow of the Meeting.

- 10.6 Withdrawal of motions
 - 10.6.1 Before any Motion is put to the vote, it may be withdrawn by the mover or seconder or the Chairperson.

 - 10.7.1 Where a Motion contains more than one part, a Councillor may request the Chairperson to put the Motion to the vote in separate parts.
 - 10.7.2 The Chairperson may decide to put any Motion to the vote in separate parts.
- 10.8 Motions moved in a block
 - 10.8.1 The Chairperson may allow like Motions to be moved, or request Councillors to move like items, in a block (en bloc), only if the Motions note actions already taken and will not commit Council to further action, spending or changes to policy.
- 10.9 Motions may be requested to be submitted in writing
 - 10.9.1 Motions, except procedural Motions, may be requested to be submitted in writing.
 - 10.9.2 The Chairperson may adjourn a Meeting for 15 minutes or less, while a Motion is being written or may request Council to defer the matter until the Motion has been written, allowing the Meeting to proceed uninterrupted.
- 10.10 Debate must be relevant to the motion
 - 10.10.1 Debate must always be relevant to the Motion before the Meeting, and, if not, the Chairperson must request the speaker to confine debate to the Motion.
 - 10.10.2 If, after being requested by the Chairperson to confine debate to the Motion before the Meeting, the speaker continues to debate irrelevant matters, the Chairperson may direct the speaker to not speak further in respect of the Motion before the Chairperson. The speaker must immediately comply with any such direction

- 10.11.4 Only one extension of speaking time is permitted for each speaker.
- 10.11.5 Any extension of speaking time must not be more than two minutes.

10.12 Procedural motions

- 10.12.1 Unless otherwise prohibited, and subject to sub- rule 10.12.2, a procedural Motion may be moved at any time and must be dealt with immediately by the Chairperson.
- 10.12.2 Procedural Motions require a seconder.
- 10.12.3 The Chairperson may reject a procedural Motion if they believe the Motion on which it is proposed has not been adequately or sufficiently debated.
- 10.12.4 Regardless of any other provision in these Governance Rules, a procedural Motion must be dealt with in accordance with the table at sub-rule 10.12.8.
- 10.12.5 A Procedural Motion may not be moved or seconded by the Chairperson.

PART 11 - POINTS OF ORDER

Overview:

A point of order is taken when a Councillor draws the attention of the Chairperson to an alleged irregularity in the proceedings. Valid points of order, the process for raising and ruling on a point of order, and the procedure if there is dissent on the Chair's ruling are described in this section.

- 11.1 A Councillor raising a Point of Order must state:
 - 11.1.1 the Point of Order; and
 - 11.1.2 any section, Clause, paragraph or provision relevant to the Point of Order.
- 11.2 The Chairperson must decide all points of order by stating the provision, rule, practice or precedent which they consider applicable to the Point of Order raised, without entering into any discussion or comment.
- 11.3 The Chairperson may adjourn the Meeting to consider a Point of Order; otherwise they must rule on it as soon as it is raised.
- 11.4 All other matters before Council are suspended until the Point of Order is decided.
- 11.5 Dissent in Chairperson's ruling
 - 11.5.1 The ruling of the Chair upon any point of order is not open to any discussion and will be final and conclusive.
- 11.6 Valid points of order
 - 11.6.1 A Point of Order may be raised in relation to:
 - (a) a Motion which has not been accepted by the Chairperson
 - (b) a question of procedure
 - (c) a Councillor who is not conducting themselves in accordance with the Councillor Code of Conduct;
 - (d) debate that is irrelevant to the matter under consideration;
 - (e) a matter that is outside the powers of Council
 - (f) any act of Disorder.
- 11.7 Disorderly Conduct
 - 11.7.1 The conduct of Councillors and Members at meetings is governed by the Act, these Rules and the Councillor Code of Conduct.

PART 12 - VOTING

Overview:

At the conclusion of debate on a matter before the meeting, the Chairperson must put the question, motion or amendment to the vote. Each Councillor is entitled to one vote and voting must be able to be seen by those participating in the meeting and those observing the meeting. The vote is determined by a majority of the Councillors present at the meeting at the time the vote is taken voting in favour of the motion.

If a vote is tied, the Chairperson has a casting vote.

Calling for a division allows Councillors to have how the Council voted recorded.

Provision is made for the introduction of an electronic voting system as long as Council has resolved to implement the system and all participants in the meeting and those observing a meeting are able to see which way a Councillor has voted on a matter at the time the vote is taken.

12.1 How a matter is determined

12.1.1 To determine a Motion at a Meeting, the Chairperson must first call for those in favour of the Motion and then those opposed to the Motion, and must then declare the result to the Meeting.

12.1.2 In the event of a tied vote, the Chairperson must, unless the Act provides otherwise, exercise the casting vote.

12.2 Voting must be seen

12.2.1 Voting may be by any method resolved by Council that enables those in attendance and those watching a livestream broadcast to clearly see which way a Council has voted at the time a vote is taken.

12.2.2 In the absence of a Council resolving an alternative method, voting on any matter is by show of hands.

12.2.3 Where a Councillor is remotely attending then their hand must be visible on the screen when voting.

12.3 When a division is permitted

12.3.1 A division may be requested by any Councillor on any vote.

12.3.2 The request must be made to the Chairperson either immediately prior to, or immediately after, the vote has been taken, and may not be made after the Meeting has moved to the next item of business.

12.3.3 When a division is called for the Chairperson must:

- (a) first ask each Councillor wishing to vote in favour of the Motion to indicate their vote (by show of hands or standing) and the Chairperson must then state the names of those Councillors to be recorded in the Minutes;
- (b) then ask each Councillor wishing to vote against the Motion to indicate their vote and the Chairperson must then state the names of those Councillors to be recorded in the Minutes;
- (c) next, ask each Councillor abstaining from voting to indicate their vote and the Chairperson must then state the names of those Councillors to be recorded in the Minutes; and
- (d) finally, declare the result of the division.

12.3.4 Where a division is requested after the original vote has been taken, the Motion is decided on the division and the fact that there may be a difference between the result obtained when the original vote was taken and the result obtained on the division must be disregarded.

12.4 No discussion once a vote has been declared

12.5 Once a vote on a Motion has been declared carried or lost by the Chairperson, no further discussion relating to the Motion is allowed, unless the discussion:

12.5.1 involves calling for a division in accordance with Rule 12.3

12.5.2 a Councillor foreshadows a rescission where a resolution has just been made

12.5.3 a Councillor foreshadows a positive Motion where a resolution has just been rescinded.

Section 59 of the Act provides:

(5) A question before a Council meeting is to be determined as follows—

(a) each Councillor present at a Council meeting who is entitled to vote is entitled to one vote;

(b) voting at a meeting must not be in secret, but if the meeting is closed to the public, a Councillor is not required to divulge their vote to the public;

(c) the question is determined in the affirmative by a majority of the Councillors present at a meeting at the time the vote is taken voting in favour of the question;

(d) subject to subsection (6), if the number of votes in favour of the question is half the number of Councillors present at the meeting at the time the vote is taken, the chairperson has a second vote;

(e) for the purpose of determining the result of a vote, a Councillor present at the meeting who does not vote is to be taken to have voted against the question.

The Chairperson does not have a casting vote in the election of Mayor or Deputy Mayor as these positions must be elected by an absolute Majority of Councillors.
