Pageeturners – 7pm Thursday, 21 March

We are not the kind of book group where all members reading and discussing the same book. We are more focused on discussing what our members have read, and how that book made them think or feel. This always provokes lively discussion! A range of books and talking books will be available to look at or borrow on the night, or put on hold for later reading. Supper is provided.

Guest Speaker – Lou Harvey- Zahra – 10am Thursday, 28 March

Lou Harvey-Zahra, bestselling author of 'Happy Child, Happy Home' and 'Creative Discipline, Connected Family' is coming to Kinglake Library to present her inspiring Creative Discipline talk. Lou will cover practical parenting ideas to transform common everyday behaviours including bed times, tricky eating, sibling squabbles and decreasing tantrums.

Guest Speaker – Arnold Zable Writing Workshop – 6.30pm Thursday, 28 March

You have a story to tell, or ideas for stories, derived from your own life or elsewhere? What is the best way to tell it, and the best way to structure and craft it? Novel or memoir, autobiography or short story? Family history or biography? There are techniques common to all genres. At the heart of all well-told stories is an understanding of the true meaning of imagination. Join us and explore the art of story in warm surroundings and good company.
