

Speak Up Alexandra recognised at Council Meeting

Members of 'Speak Up Alexandra' were presented with Community Recognition Certificates at the Council meeting in Alexandra on Wednesday 24 October. Speak Up Alexandra is a group of community members who are passionate about advocating for people living with a disability.

The group has been active in promoting the rights of people with a disability and the need for improved access to ensure everyone can participate and access the services they need.

Pictured left to right: Christian Bell and Wendy Kelly from Nexus Primary Health, Cr Margaret Rae, Ian Hewitt, Stephanie Phelps, Luke Taylor, Nola Cook, Mayor Charlie Bisset, Anne-Maree Fricke and Nicole Thorn.