

SIENNA TAYLOR

Picture a gentle flowing stream leading to a vast blue ocean and you may be able to hear 12 year old Sienna before she sings a note. Growing up in North Central Victoria, Sienna brings an authentic rural charm and style.

Writing her own original songs and performing to audiences across her local region has ensured rapid but measured growth in this beautiful young artist who shines in the spotlight.

At 11 Sienna co-wrote and recorded her first song 'When Will I Know' with producer and singing teacher Paul Ray and it was played on a number of community radio stations via Amrap.

The follow up single is simply titled 'T' – an anthemic teen song about missing a best friend who has moved away, and is accompanied by a professional music video.

"A huge congratulations to Sienna Taylor, last week releasing her new song 'When Will I Know?'. Recognition to Sienna with her talent and beautiful voice." – Murrindindi Shire Youth

"Sienna appears to be singing from the heart, and that is something artists can often struggle to do with authenticity. Great job!" – Universal Music Australia

Sienna was recently featured in a Win News report covering the 'Dindi Sessions' comprising of a songwriting workshop (facilitated by country artist Kaitlyn Thomas) and subsequent recording session held in Yea, Victoria.

Sienna's new single and video 'T' released on 13 June 2020.
