

NEEAH BULLOCK

“Happy To Be Me” is the title of Neeah Bullock’s first single and it aptly describes this talented and tenacious young performer who is excited for the world to hear her.

Neeah is an enthusiastic member of the Paul Ray and Students group and has performed at the Whittlesea Show and Kinglake Fair as well as other events in her local region. She was also a lead vocalist in the ‘Carter & Carter’ project Country Kids Sing Out Loud.

At 11 years old Neeah is already winning industry hearts and is working hard to expand her songwriting to be able to build a strong set of songs that she can perform anywhere and everywhere.

Taking part in a recent Murrindindi Shire (VIC) initiative supported by Creative Victoria, Neeah had the opportunity to record her single and produce a professional video to accompany it.

"During the Country Kids Sing Out Loud recording project Neeah Bullock produced so many moments that just made us smile. Not only did she sing really well, have her own distinctive style and lead the others in her group - she shone when she sang with such joy that you just couldn't help but be swept up in her performance". That is one of the hardest things to teach in singing because it has to come from within. She continued to shine throughout the project and was instrumental in making both the recorded and live performance so incredible for her school. It's only a matter of time before we see Neeah Bullock up on stage, singing her own songs and taking everyone along for the ride as an artist in her own right. We look forward to being there to enjoy it" - David & Merelyn (Carter & Carter)

Neeah was recently featured on a Win News report covering the ‘Dindi Sessions’ songwriting workshop (facilitated by country artist Kaitlyn Thomas) and subsequent recording session held in Yea, Victoria.

Neeah’s new single and video released on 30 May 2020.
