

Request Extension of Building Permit Application

When the commencement or completion dates set out in a Building permit will not be met, the Applicant may apply for an extension to the permit dates. The application must be in writing and be made prior to the lapse of the building permit. The application is considered by the Registered Building Surveyor and the applicant will be notified in writing of the outcome. Extensions are issued for a period of 12 months and all works and inspections must be completed within the approved timeframe.

Application fee $228.80
